Dear Madam Elections in Britain

I have reservations about postal voting especially when numerous votes are sent from a single source. In my opinion postal voting should be restricted to persons certified as unfit to travel.

The vast majority of votes should be personally cast in secret, after proving eligibility. The last election did nothing to enhance my confidence in the present system.

Please withhold my address.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'John Baston'. The signature is written in a cursive style with a large initial 'J'.
