

Dear Sir Christopher Kelly,

After the expose of MPs making a mockery of us all - and presumably then seeking "efficiencies" by cutting the jobs of hardworking public servants - can we please just provide a very attractive hostel for MPs from out of London, with cleaning, laundry and a cafeteria provided so that there are no expenses to be claimed, and the real estate remains the property of the public?

Many thanks for your efforts in bringing integrity back into public life,

Mrs. S Storrington
London
