

Sir

On behalf of the Beckenham Conservative Association I would like to submit the following resolution, which was passed by the BCA, to the Committee on Standards in Public Life.

That a submission be made to the Committee on Standards in Public Life that no Member of Parliament should claim travel between their constituency and their home. In addition no Member living within a reasonable distance from London should claim a second home allowance.

Yours faithfully
ATH Power
Chairman
Beckenham Conservative Association